Introduction

The Denmark Markets have been established in 1981 as an initiative of the Denmark Arts Council. Its aim is to provide an outlet for local and regional craft, art and performing arts in a village atmosphere. The stalls are an important part of the day, with handcrafted, innovative designs encouraged. In addition to the arts and craft stalls the Market also provides free live entertainment, showcasing local emerging talent as well as touring bands and musicians.

Purpose of the Denmark Arts Market

- To provide a sustainable market that focuses on local and regional art and craft.
- To provide an appropriate outlet for local art and craft to be sold directly to the public.
- To create a village atmosphere that attracts visitors and local residents and encourages social interaction.
- To contribute to the local economy through increasing visitors to Denmark.
- To provide a venue for community groups to encourage positive involvement with the Denmark Community.
- To provide opportunities for local business to showcase their product/service to the Denmark Community.

Denmark Arts Market Location, Dates and Trading Hours

The Denmark Markets take place 4 times a year at Berridge Park, Denmark. The markets will be held on the 2nd Saturday in December, on the 1st or 2nd Saturday in January, as deemed appropriate and on the Sunday of the Australia Day long weekend. The Easter market will be held on the Saturday of the Easter weekend. Trading Hours are 10am to 3pm. Stall holders are required to stay open for trading during trading hours.

Stall Allocation Guidelines

The Denmark Arts Market is primarily a market supporting local and regional handmade craft, art and performing arts in a village atmosphere. It aims to provide a vibrant range of products to showcase primarily, but not limited to local and regional artisans with an emphasis on originality, creativity and individuality. Hand crafted/made products, homegrown/local produce are encouraged to apply. Regional/local craftspeople and emerging artists are our target stallholders to provide an outlet for regional hand made/grown produce.

Free entertainment will be provided during the day.

It is the role of the Denmark Markets coordinator to maintain the balances required to achieve these outcomes. The criteria listed below will guide the allocation of stalls.
